SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 2009

9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

The Ann Arbor Women's City Club has adopted a name change and is now doing business as The Ann Arbor City Club. The purpose of the Ann Arbor City Club is to promote the charitable, educational, ethical, artistic and spiritual growth of the community and to advance its general welfare.

The Ann Arbor City Club offers a wide range of activities for women and/or men of all ages and interests. There is a niche for everyone. The club has many classes from which to choose such as art study, painting, exercise, and even expert bridge instruction. Members can help with the grounds, belong to the garden club, enjoy lunch and/or dinner in our pleasant dining room, attend classes, and participate in trips and tours. Some of the annual events which Club members and the community can enjoy are the Club's Home Tour, the Flea Market, the Art and Craft Festival and much more. Each year a charitable organization is selected from events open to the community.
