

36th ANNUAL ART AND CRAFT FESTIVAL

Saturday, December 7, 2019
9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

The purpose of the Ann Arbor City Club is to promote the charitable, educational, ethical, and artistic growth of the community and to advance its general welfare.

The Ann Arbor City Club offers a wide range of activities for women and men of all ages and interests. There is a niche for everyone. The club has many classes from which to choose such as art study, painting, exercise, and even expert bridge instruction. Members can help with the grounds, belong to the garden club, enjoy lunch and dinner in our pleasant dining room or in our pub, attend classes, and participate in trips and tours. Some of the annual events which Club members and the community can enjoy are the Club's Flea Market, the Art and Craft Festival, Classic Car Display, and much more.

A portion of the Art & Craft Festival proceeds will be donated to a local non-profit agency.
